

Feel the softness and fall in love with our details

ABOUT US:

The Company was created in November 2009.
It is Located in Lima Peru.

Due to the extensive experience and career in the textile world, we decided to create our first brand Sarah Nicole (for young people).

2012 we decided to venture with Zoe brand inspired by my daughter Zoe, it is a line of clothing for babies and children with unique designs a mix of vintage and contemporary, we use the best materials such as Peruvian Pima cotton, and also ensure that the entire production process from the yarn, fabric, dyeing fabrics and finishing care for each parameter that requires both the European and American standards.

Right now our products are sold in the local market successfully.

MISSION:

Produce babies and children garments made of fine fibers of Peruvian pima cotton and delicate handmade embroidery.

Our garments awaken our customers the feeling of well-being, protection and comfort the children's skin.

VISION:

We want to be a recognized company in the world market for the quality of our product.

COLLECTIONS

We take special care in making sure that all our designs would be durable and time resistant both in quality and style . In this Pre-season 2015 We wanted it to be something special that meets the same quality and functionality requirements as our old collections in this occasion we included garments in flat-woven fabrics.

Why do we use Peruvian Cotton?

Given the extraordinary characteristics of Peruvian Pima Cotton , - the length, fineness and smoothness of its fiber - it is possible to produce very fine, uniform, resistant yarns for the manufacture of top quality textile garments, for the most demanding niches or sectors in the world.
